

D&MF RESIDENCE

This new residence was created for a family with young children in Saint Louis County. The house is designed as a modified 'H' plan. The shared living areas are in one wing, and the master suite and children's bedrooms above in the private wing. Between the two is a large glass-walled living room that on the north opens to a sheltered patio, and on the south, to a large expanse of landscape with a private view.

Click any image to see more photos.

IN THE NEWS

■ StudioDurham was featured in a St. Louis Business Journal article in the October 19-25 issue about area architects who live their design.

CLICK LOGOS TO FOLLOW US ON FACEBOOK OR HOZZ

